

Representative or Senator (),

Warren Buffett, Charlie Munger, and Berkshire Hathaway are major shareholders in the huge kidney dialysis company DaVita. As for reasons you will see, I think they should be asked the following question:

"There are a lot of reasons DaVita should be broken up (the numbers[1], scandals[2]), are there any reasons left indicating DaVita shouldn't be broken up into something like small care co-ops[3]?"

[1] Colorado State Legislature Fact Sheet:

<https://www.dialysethics2.org/index.php/our-concerns/88-fact-sheet-2007>

[2] DialysisEthics2.org webpage with Articles and Video:

<https://www.dialysethics2.org/index.php/articles/30-solutions-and-concerns/31-concerns/111-davita-and-former-ceo-kent-thiry>

[3] DialysisEthics2.org webpage article from New York Times:

<https://www.dialysethics2.org/index.php/articles/9-blog/131-health-co-op-offers-model-for-overhaul>

More Info: DialysisEthics2.org

Regards,